

Songwriters Round

Saturday - September, 21 at 7:30pm

Come to an evening filled with music featuring the talents of local Nashville Songwriters Association International Vermont/NH chapter members in this “Nashville Songwriters Round” showcase.

Carol Ann Jones - singer, songwriter, recording artist and dairy farmer from Georgia, Vermont. When you listen, you might think she wrote the songs for you! Life stories, full of hope, from this New England storyteller, sure to pull at your heartstrings.

Jim Karns - singer songwriter that plays keyboards and guitar. Jim won the Baltimore /Washington Songwriter's Association's, songwriting Contest and has played in numerous, very well known rock and country bands up and down the East Coast. Jim now lives in West Burke.

Ashley Miles is a teen singer/songwriter/musician from Concord, VT, who has been performing since the age of 7. She performs new and traditional country music as well as her own original music and recently released her first CD. Ashley is currently the New Hampshire Country Music Association's “New Country Female Entertainer of the Year.”

Carol Hausner writes original bluegrass, country, and folk music and plays with various bands in the Mid-Atlantic States and New England. In 2009 she won First Place at the legendary MerleFest Chris Austin Songwriting Contest in Wilkesboro, NC, with co-writer Colin McCaffrey, in the Bluegrass Category for "Love Gone By."

Catamount Arts Center, 115 Eastern Avenue, St. Johnsbury, VT

Tickets - $10 public / $8 – Members (Catamount and NSAI members)

www.CatamountArts.org

1- 888- 757- 5559